The Parting Glass

Oh, all the money e'er I had, I spent it in good company.
And all the harm that ever I've done, alas it was to none but me.
And all I've done for want of wit to mem'ry
now I can't recall;
So fill to me the parting glass, Good night
and joy be with you all.

If I had money enough to spend, and leisure
time to sit awhile.
There is a fair maid in this town, that sorely
has my heart beguiled.
Her rosy cheeks and ruby lips, I own, she has
my heart in thrall;
Then fill to me the parting glass, Good night
and joy be with you all.

Oh, all the comrades e'er I had, they're sorry
for my going away.
And all the sweethearts e'er I had, they'd wished me one more day to stay.
But since it falls unto my lot, that I should rise and you should not,
I gently rise and softly call, Goodnight and
joy be with you all.

What's the use of worrying?

Let's have a Guinness

How much brighter life is after a Guinness !
How much fresher and stronger you feel—how much calmer in this time
of strain.
Have a Guinness tonight. Guinness
is good for you.
